Alberto Bioletti. Soldier of Napoleon and Clockmaker of Wincanton

Local author John Baxter will present the evidence of his research into the Life and Times of Wincanton's forgotten hero the Italian who joined Napoleon's army as a teenager to find himself fighting in a series of incredible campaigns and who ended settling in Wincanton with his English wife and children. Over the next 45 years he raised two families and prospered first as a barber and then as a highly skilled clockmaker.
